

Date: _____

Name: _____

Voices in the Park Connections Rubric

	1 Incomplete: Make a meeting with the teacher	2 Developing: Minimally Meeting Expectations	3 Accomplished: Meeting Expectations	4 Wow! Exceeding Expectations
Facial Expression	Did not include facial expressions or drew the same facial expression for each voice.	At least two of the facial expression match the emotions of the voices. A mouth is drawn to express the emotion.	Facial expressions match the emotions of the voices. Eyes and a mouth are drawn to express the emotion.	Facial expressions accurately match the emotion(s) of the voices. Detail and attention is used to express the emotion (eyes, eyebrows, and mouth).
Thinking Bubble	Did not fill in the thinking bubble or only wrote a few words that did not express the characters thoughts.	Each thinking bubble explains what the character is thinking.	Each thinking bubble explains what the character is thinking. Some detail and explanation is included.	Each thinking bubble is written with great detail and description. Includes what the character is thinking and why.
Connections	Unable to connect to any part of what the voices are feeling, thinking, or experiences.	Connections are made to two of the voices through thoughts, OR feelings, OR experiences.	Connections are made to all four of the voices through thoughts, OR feelings, OR experiences.	Connections are made to all four of the voices through thoughts, feelings, and experiences.

Student Assessment:

Teacher Assessment:

/12

/12